

Oilfield Services and Equipment in

OKLAHOMA

5TH DISTRICT, REP. KENDRA HORN

BACKGROUND

For nearly 120 years, oil and gas has been produced in the Sooner State. In Oklahoma, 1 in 5 jobs is directly or indirectly supported by the oil and gas industry. The industry paid $2 billion in direct taxes in fiscal year 2015. PESA member companies directly employ more than 700 individuals in Oklahoma District 1 with high paying manufacturing and technical jobs.

QUICK FACTS

- Excluding federal offshore areas, Oklahoma was the nation's fifth-largest crude oil producing state in 2016.
- Oklahoma is one of the top natural-gas producing states in the nation, accounting for 7.6 percent of U.S. gross production and 8.7 percent of marketed production in 2016.
- The Oklahoma oil and gas industry supports 114,762 full and part-time jobs and $20.4 billion in gross state product with an average salary of $94,000 per year.

MEMBER LOCATIONS

- All-Pro Fasteners – Oklahoma City, 9 employees
- Apergy – 1 location employing 22 employees
- Baker Hughes, a GE company – Oklahoma City
- Cameron, a Schlumberger Company – Oklahoma City
- Cudd Energy Services – Oklahoma City and Seminole
- DistributionNOW – 4 locations in Oklahoma City
- Endurance Lift Solutions – Oklahoma City
- Gardner Denver – Oklahoma City
- Halliburton – Oklahoma City
- Key Energy Services – Oklahoma City
- Kimray – Oklahoma City, 772 employees
- National Oilwell Varco – Edmond, 26 employees; 11 locations in Oklahoma City employing 274
- Oil States International – Oklahoma City
- Patterson-UTI – Oklahoma City
- Pioneer Energy Services – Oklahoma City
- Premium Oilfield Technologies – Oklahoma City, 5 employees
- Sierra Hamilton – Oklahoma City
- Southwest Oilfield Products – Oklahoma City, 4 employees
- Superior Energy Services – Oklahoma City
- Weatherford – Oklahoma City